Description

Luxerton Supreme is a lightweight non-slip underlay made of high-quality needle felt with a double-sided latex non-slip coating. It prevents dangerous creeping of carpets while creating a reliable base. This product can be used on various surfaces such as carpet, parquet, laminate, ceramic, cork, and PVC, and is suitable for both residential and project use. It's easy to install, levels small imperfections in the subfloor, extends the lifespan of carpets, and preserves their original appearance. Additionally, it is produced in an environmentally friendly manner and is compatible with underfloor heating.
